SCIFINDER NOW WEB-BASED

SciFinder has gone web-based, allowing you to browse CAS literature on a variety of disciplines from anywhere, with no download required. You can read more at <http://www.library.okstate.edu/news/sum10/scifinder.htm> or register at

<http://argo.library.okstate.edu/loggedin/scifinder.htm>. If you have any questions or want personal training, contact Kiem-Dung Ta at kiem.ta@okstate.edu.

2009 JOURNAL CITATION RECORDS DATA NOW AVAILABLE

The 2009 Journal Citation Reports (JCR) is now available on the Library website. JCR offers a systematic objective means to evaluate the world's leading science and social science journals with statistical information based on citation data. The 2009 version includes nearly 900 new regionally important and international journals as well as the Eigenfactor™ metrics. You can find the 2009 JCR on the Library's website at <http://argo.library.okstate.edu/login?url=http://isiknowledge.com/jcr>.

NEW CIRCULATION & INFORMATION SERVICE CENTER OPEN

Construction on the first-floor information and circulation desk is complete, and services have been relocated. The Information desk is now located on the north end of the area. Laptop checkout is available on the south end of the center. All other check-outs will be performed on the longer, east side.
